

Winter 2023 MULTI-GENERATIONAL FARM TRANSITION RETREAT

Hosted by Jim Molenaar, jmolenaar@sctcc.edu, St. Cloud Technical and Community College, Nathan Hulinsky, huli0013@umn.edu, University of Minnesota Extension, and Megan Roberts, Minnesota State Southern Agricultural Center of Excellence

Join us for hands-on planning and discussion on farm transition for the whole farm family. All generations actively involved in the farm should attend the retreat together, including spouses, partners and/or other relevant parties. Pick the location most convenient for your family.

Attend to dive deeper into conversations about: family and business goals, job responsibilities, financial needs of farms and families, inheritance considerations, and mechanisms of transfer.
